FAQs - As with anything new we are sure you have tons of questions.

What is EXPLORE?

Explore is an Interactive Family Camping Retreat! We know this past year has been rough on families, especially in the area of finances. We wanted to create an affordable family-friendly retreat experience to create lasting memories. A time and place that we could disconnect from the world to reconnect with God and each other.

Is this Family Camp? Or Is this Kidz Camp?

Yes and No but Neither! How is that for a solid answer? It is an innovative camp experience that combines all the fun of Kids Camp and the interaction of Family Camp to build relationships to create a hybrid retreat. Yes, it is a camping trip for families but not the traditional NE/TX District Family Camp. Families will attend activities together of their choosing.

My siblings and I would like to come to EXPLORE, but our parents are unable to join us. Can we still come?

Yes, it does not have to be your parents. Are your grandparents available? What about an aunt, uncle and your cousins? Families come in all shapes, sizes and combinations. So, while we would love to have your parents join you, we understand that sometimes that is not an option.

EXPLORE is for all sizes and kinds of Families: Just a Few Examples

Parents or Guardians and Children

Grandparents and Grandkids

Aunts and Uncles with Nephews and Nieces and Cousins

Father with Sons/Mother with Daughters

Or Two Naz Safe Certified Adults with up to 6 children

(same-sex adults with same-sex children)

Only requirement: Must include Adults when Bringing Children

Why EXPLORE this year?

If 2020 taught us anything, it is that life can change suddenly. We desire to come along-side families to support them in the spiritual training of their children, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and chosen family members (those we adopt into our lives as family). We want to provide shared fun experiences with your children, provide tools to share with each other spiritually and all for a low-cost option. Our speakers, Rev. Trey and Candice Brooks, will share God's Word creatively and provide an opportunity to interact with one another about what we learned. Last year was draining; we want to invest in you as a family with fun activities, social engagement, emotional support, and spiritual renewal. You deserve a weekend to disconnect to reconnect with God, with others, and with nature.

What activities will be offered to attend as a family?

There are lots of activities being planned as you read this. Scottsville is installing a new pool that you will be able to use. There will be Games, Sports, Fishing, Boating, Swimming, Campfires, Interactive Chapel Services, Meal Times, Snack Shack, Service Projects, Scavenger Hunts, Gaga Ball, and Creativity Workshop, to name a few. We are working on other options, also. Oh, and on a positive note: we have meals planned and prepared and most rooms are newly remodeled.

COVID Check List

Due to the effects of COVID-19 we are required to change some of our policies and procedures. One of those is pre camp screenings. We ask that a camper checklist be done on all attendees before leaving for Scottsville Camp and Conference Center. The following can be used for the pre camp screening. It will also be used upon arrival at the campground.

Anyone exhibiting signs and symptoms prior to 14 days to the start of camp should refrain from attending. In addition, anyone who shows signs and symptoms during camp will be immediately isolated and legal guardian contacted to pick up their camper that same day.

Have you had any of the following symptoms within the last 14 days?
